

Carolina Designer Craftsmen Guild

INVITES

North Carolina High School Designer Craftsmen
TO CELEBRATE OUR 42nd ANNIVERSARY WITH AN EXHIBIT OF THE VERY BEST IN HIGH SCHOOL DESIGNER CRAFTS DURING OUR ANNUAL THANKSGIVING WEEKEND GALA!

The CDCG, www.carolinadesignercraftsmen.com, hopes you will join our annual show.

There is no fee to apply.

Eligibility: All North Carolina high school students are eligible to submit one work. Students whose work is accepted are responsible for delivery Wednesday and pickup Sunday at the State Fairgrounds during Thanksgiving week.

Eligible craft media represented include: Clay, Fiber, Glass, Jewelry, Metal, Wood, Furniture, Photography, Paper and Mixed Media. All work must be original and made by hand. Selection is based on creativity and excellence in design and technique.

Not eligible are paintings, commercially printed photography or reproductions. Neither are objects made from kits, imported, commercially manufactured, cast from commercial molds, embellished (painted boxes, china, furniture, ready-made clothing) nor preserved natural objects (rocks, driftwood, shells, wildlife).

How to apply: Digital images of work need to be sent by email.

Images do not need to be professional photos.

Our standards committee will be selecting the very best of student designer crafts for this unique opportunity. Their decision is final.

Selected work will be displayed in a booth dedicated to student crafts.

Student work will not be for sale.

A $500 award will be presented for best in exhibit.

To apply: Send email to Deborah Harris at dharris118@nc.rr.com .
